THE PREFACE:

SHEWING THE

Antiquity of Singing PSALMS and HYMNS;
with an Account of this Book, and the Use thereof.

THE Raising of GOD by Psalms and Hymns, as it seems a part of Natural Religion owned and used by all Mankind, so we find the Practice of it very early in the Church of God. There can be no just cause to doubt, but that it was at least contemporary with Instrumental Musick, a thing as ancient as the Times of Adam, invented by Jubal who was the Father of all such as handle the Harp and Organ, Gen. 4. 21. But we need not build upon Conjectures, where we have clear Evidence. After the famous Deliverance which God gave the Israelites at the Red Sea, they celebrated the Mercy with a Song of Triumph; and Josephus says, They spent the whole night in Hymns and Myrth: Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, Exod. 15. 1. which is there upon Record, composed (as Josephus adds) in Hexameter Verse; and that it was conjoyned with Instrumental Musick is plain, vers. 20, 21. And Miriam the Prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a Timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her with Timbrels and with Dances: And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously, &c. But the first that established singing Psalms and Hymns, as a fix'd and constant part of God's publick Worship in the solemn Assemblies of the Jewish Church, was King David; whose zeal for God's Glory (before the House of God was built) set himself to compose divers Psalms for that service, as we read in 1 Chron. 16. 7. and ch. 25. v. 6, 7. and to chuse out Men skilful in Song to perform the same to the praise of Almighty God. When his Son Solomon had finished the Temple, at the Dedication thereof, you may read in 2 Chron. 5. 12, 13, 14. how the Praises of the Lord were sounded forth with Voices and Instruments, and also how acceptable it was to the Lord. This being established, the Priests and Levites con-

finued this solemn Worship during the time of the First and Second Temple, even till the Destruction thereof, foretold by our blessed Saviour, who saw the Glory thereof, and frequented that place, as he acknowledgeth, Luke 22. 53. I was daily with you in the Temple. And (as a Learned Divine observes) it is not credible, that our blessed Saviour, who so often quoted David's Psalms for the confirmation of his Doctrine, would neglect that part of Worship then in force, and who did himself say, That it became him to fulfil all righteousness; which he further testified, when together with his Disciples he sung a Psalm or Hymn at the end of the Celebration of his Last Supper. After his Ascension, his Disciples gave testimony of their Approbation, Acts 2. 46, 47. They were daily with one accord in the temple praising God, &c. And Acts 3. 1. mentions that Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer; which was the set time for the Celebration of publick Worship.

The Use of Singing Psalms and Hymns was continued with great Reverence and Devotion among the Primitive Christians; those who consult the Writings of the Primitive Fathers, shall scarce meet with one that makes not mention thereof. An account hereof I find learnedly discoursed by Dr. Cave in his Primitive Christianity, Part 1. p. 276, 277. where, speaking of reading the appointed Lessons, he hath these words: About this part of the Service it was that they sung Hymns and Psalms, a considerable part of the Divine Worship, (as it had ever been accounted both amongst Jews and Gentiles) and more immediately serviceable for Celebrating the Honour of God, and lifting up the Minds of Men to Divine and Heavenly Raptures.

But to come nearer our Times: In our late Forefathers days, (upon the Restauration of our Church to its Primitive Purity and Discipline) it was, That some holy and godly Men brought the present use and manner of singing Psalms into the Publick Service of our Church, following herein the Examples of the Reformed Churches in France and Germany: But Time and long Use hath much abated the wonted Reverence and Estimation it had for about 100 Years after this Establishment. It was the Saying of a Learned Divine in his Sermon on this Subject, That Prayer shall cease, and Preaching shall cease, but Praising of GOD shall never cease, neither in this world, nor in that which is to come. To sing Praises to God, is an Angelic Office; it is a taste of the First Fruits of Heaven while we are on Earth. MUSICK (the Learned say) is the Handmaid to Divinity; and there is no Science, except That, admitted into the Service of the Church.

To conclude: I have made it my Endeavour so to perfect and finish this Work, that nothing should be wanting to render it useful to the End it is designed, The Glory of GOD, and the Publick Service of the Church: And for that reason, (with the Judgment of some of the best skill'd in Musick) I have Composed all the Musical Tunes into Three Parts, viz. Cantus, Medius, and Bassus: The Church Tune is placed in the Treble Part, (which is the Cantus) with the Bass under it, as most proper to joyn Voice and Instrument together, according to holy David's prescription,

The Preface.

scription, Psal. 144. 9. And since many of our Churches are lately furnished with Organs, it will also be useful for the Organist; and likewise for such Students in the Universities as shall practise Song, to sing to a Lute or Viol. The Medius Part is composed (as is proper) not to rise above the Church Tune, to cloud or obscure the Ayre thereof, except in such places as it could not be well avoided. The Bass is composed in such a compass of Notes, as will suit an indifferent Voice both below and above. All Three Parts may as properly be sung by Men, as by Boys or Women: And to that end, the two Upper Parts are constant in the G sol re ut Cliff, and the Bass in the F fa ut (its proper) Cliff; all Three Parts moving together in Solemn way of Counterpoint, and also every Tune put in such Keys as is most suitable to the Ayre thereof. Lastly, you will find every Psalme fitted to Tunes suitable and proper to the Matter: Psalms of Prayer and Confession, to solemn grave Flat Tunes; Psalms of Thanksgiving and Praise, to lively chearful Sharp Tunes. Likewise all such Psalms and Hymns whose Tunes are long, and may seem difficult to some, have Directions over them to be sung to other short Common Tunes. Also there is affixed before the Book, a Table of the first Line of the Treble-Tunes of all the Psalms, with the Names alphabetically set over each Tune; and under, what Psalms are sung to them: And a Table of Hymns in a Page by themselves. As for Instructions to the Singing of them, I refer you to my Introduction to the Skill of Musick, in 8°.

I have no more to add, but as the Glory of GOD, and the Service of his Church, was my sole End and Aim; so I shall account my Labour and Pains herein sufficiently recompensed, if it prove Useful to such as so endeavour to sing the Praises of their Creator here on Earth in Psalms and Hymns, that hereafter they may eternally sing Hallelujahs among the blessed Choir of Saints and Angels. Which is the hearty Prayer of

Your Faithful Servant,

John Playford.

Of the Virtue and Efficacy of the P S A L M S.

IN the Psalms are described the rewards of good, the punishments of evil men, the rudiments of beginners, the progress of proficientes, and consummation of perfect men.

The Singing of Psalms comforteth the sorrowful, pacifieth the angry, strengtheneth the weak, humbleth the proud, gladdeth the humble, stirreth up the slow, reconcileth enemies, lifteth up the heart to heavenly things, and uniterh the Creature to his Creator; for whatsoever is in the Psalms, conduceth to the edification, benefit, and consolation of mankind.

If thou would'st make a confession, and repent thee of thy sins; then with remorse and humility sing the 7 Penitential Psalms of David, viz Psal. 6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, 143. and thou shalt feel the sweet mercies of God, and thy mind refreshed with spiritual joy.

If thou would'st pray; then pour forth thy soul in Psal. 25, 54, 67, 70, 73, 86, 143. for the soul of man cannot either feelingly express its misery, tribulation, and anguish of temptation, or more powerfully call upon the mercy of God, than in these Psalms.

If thou would'st praise the Majesty of God, or give him thanks for all his benefits; then sing Psal. 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 111, 113, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150.

If thou art so far afflicted with outward and inward temptations, that thou seemest to be forsaken; then sing heartily Psal. 22, 64, 69.

If this present life be tedious unto thee, and that with an ardent desire thou waitest to see God; then sing Psal. 42, 63, 84.

If thou find thy self quite dejected, and (as it were) forlorn in trouble; then with compunction of heart sing Psal. 13, 31, 44, 54, 56. And if thou hast found ease and rest unto thy soul, then sing to the praise of God Psal. 30, 34, 103, 104. And always (whether in time of adversity or prosperity) sing out the Song of the 3 holy Children, wherein every creature is invited to praise God.

If thou desirest to exercise thy self in God's divine praises and precepts; then sing Psal. 119. wherein, if thou search even all thou canst, yet thou wilt never perfectly understand the virtues and excellencies, or reach to the heights and depths comprehended in it; for hardly is there a Verse, wherein is not mention made of God's Law, Commandments, Testimonies, or Precepts.

In a word, he that gives these heavenly Hymns their due, had need to compose a Psalm in praise of the Psalms, that so the devout and joyful soul might, with looking up to God, reflect upon its own work, and transport it self unto the Choir of Angels and Saints, whose perpetual task is to sing their concording Parts without pause, redoubling and descanting, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts. And if Vocal Musick be not enough, let the Instrumental be added, Rev. 15. 2, 3 They have in their hands the harps of God, and sing the song of Moses, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty. Amen.

PSALM III. Or to Westminster Tune.

O

They break my heart when as they say, God can him not restore.

But thou, O Lord, art my defence, when I am hard bestead:

My worship and mine honour both, and thou hold'st up my head.

4 Then with my voice upon the Lord

I did both call and cry :

And he out of his holy hill
did hear me instantly.

5 I laid me down, and quietly

I slept, and rose again :

For why ? I know assuredly,
the Lord will me sustain.

6 If thousands up against me rise,

I will not be afraid :

Forthou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.

Rise up therefore, save me my God,

to thee now I do call : (teeth

7 For thou hast broke the cheeks and of these wicked men all.

8 Salvation only doth belong to thee, O Lord above :

Who on thy people dost bestow
thy blessing and thy love.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
all Glory be therefore :

As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

O God that art my righteousness, Lord, hear me when I call :

Thou hast set me at li-ber-ty, when I was bound in thrall.

2 Have mercy, Lord, therefore on me,
and grant me my request :

For unto thee incessantly, I cry
to cry I will not rest.

3 O mortal men how long will ye my glory thus despise ?

Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies ?

4 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse :

And when to him I make complaint,
he doth me not refuse.

5 Sin not but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart;

And in your chamber quietly,
see you your selves convert.

6 Offer to God the Sacrifice of righteousness and praise :

And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust always.

7 The greater sort crave worldly and riches do embrace : (goods,

But, Lord, grant us thy countenance,

INcline thine ears, O Lord, and let my words have free ac-cess:

3 Hear me betime, Lord, tarry not,
for I will have respect,
My supplication in the morn
to thee for to direct.

4 And I will trust through patience
in thee my God alone:
Thou art not pleas'd with wickedness,
and ill with thee dwells none.

5 Such as be foolish shall not stand
in sight of thee, O Lord:
Vain workers of iniquity
thou hast always abhorr'd.

6 The liars and base flatterers
shall be destroy'd by thee, Blood-thirsty and deceitful men
likewise shall hated be.

7 Therefore will I come to thine

And reverently will worship thee,
toward thine holy place.

8 Lord Lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes:
Also the way that I should walk,
before my face disclose.

9 For in their mouths there is no
their inward filth is great:
Their throat an open sepulchre,
and tongues full of deceit.

10 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to naught:
Subvert them in their heaps of sin,
which have rebellion wrought.

11 But those that put their trust in let them be glad always, (thee,
And render thanks for thy defence,

2 For I am weak, therefore, O Lord,
of mercy me forbear : (know'st
And heal me, Lord, for why ? thou
my bones do quake for fear.
3 My soul is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently :
But, Lord, how long wilt thou delay
to cure my misery ?
4 Lord turn thee to thy wonted
my fainting soul up take; (grace,
O save me not for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.
5 For why ? no man among the dead
remembereth thee one whit :

Or who shall worship thee, O Lord,
in the infernal pit?
6 So grievous is my plaint and moan,
that I wax wondrous faint :
All the night long I wash my bed
with tears of my complaint.
7 My sight is dim, and waxeth old
with anguish of my heart,
For fear of them that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.
8 But now depart from me, all ye that work iniquity.
Because the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.

Psalm vi, vii,

9

9 He heard not only the request
and prayer of my heart:
But it received at my hands,

Psalm 7.

A. 3. Voc.

O Lord, my God, I put my trust and con-fi-dence in thee,

Save me from them that me pursue, and still de-li-ver me.

2 Left like a lion he me tear
and rend in pieces small,
While there is none to succour me,
and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right,
Or else if I be found in fault,

4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distress,
Which me pursu'd most cruelly
and hated me causeless:

6 Stand up, O Lord, now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain :
Perform the kingdom promised

The Second part.

9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just man's guide:

10 By whom the secrets of all hearts
are searched and descry'd.

11 I take my help to come of God,
in all my pain and smart,
That doth preserve all those that be 12 The just man and the wicked both

God judgeth by his pow'r :
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.

13 Except he change his mind, I die;
for even as he should smite,
He whets his sword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit.

14 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,
For them that do me persecute,
whilst he doth mischief warp.

15 But lo, though he in travail be of his dev'lish forecast,
And of his mischief once conceiv'd
yet brings forth naught at last.

16 He digs a ditch, and makes it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother :
But he shall fall into the pit
that he digg'd up for other.

17 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred,
And all the mischief that he wrought
shall fall on his own head.

A. 3. Voc.

O God our Lord, how wonderful are thy works ev'ry where,

Thy fame surmounts in dig-ni-ty above the heavens clear!

2 Ev'n by the mouth of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:

For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.

3 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand;
The sun, the moon, and all the stars,
in order as they stand.

4 Lord, what is man that thou of him
tak'st such abundant care?

Or what the son of man, whom thou
to visit dost not spare?

5 For thou hast made him little less than angels in degree:

And thou hast also crown'd him with glory and dignity.

6 Thou hast preferr'd him to be lord
of all thy works of wonder:

And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keep them under.

7 As sheep and neat, and all beasts else,
that in the fields do feed:

8 Fowls of the air, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breed.

9 Therefore must I say once again,
O God thou art our Lord,

How famous and how wonderful,
are thy works through the world.

With heart and mouth un—to the Lord, will I sing laud and praise :

And speak of all thy wondrous works, and them declare always.

2 I will be glad and much rejoyce
in thee, O God most high :
And make my songs extol thy Name
above the starry skie.

3 Because my foes are driven back,
and turned unto flight :
They fall down flat and are destroy'd
by thy great power and might.

4 Thou hast revenged all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudge :
Thou dost with justice hear my cause,
most like a righteous judge.

5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folk,

the people unto me.

47 And from my foe deliver'd me,
and set me over those That cruel and ungodly were
and up against me rose.

48 And for this cause, O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall,
And sing out praises to thy Name
among the Gentiles all.

49 Deliv'rance great thou giv'st the (king,
and dost me serve in store:
Mercy for thine Anointed, and his seed for evermore.

*To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:*

*As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.*

3 There is no language, tongue or where their sound is not heard,
In all the earth and coasts thereof
their knowledge is conferr'd.

4 In them the Lord made for the sun
a place of great renown,
Who like a bridegroom ready trim'd,
doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,
With joy doth hast to take in hand
some noble enterprize.

6 And all the skie from end to end he compasseth about :
Nothing can hide it from his heat
but he will find it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his cov'nant sure, Converting souls, and making wise
the simple and obscure !

8 Just are the Lord's commande-
and glad both heart and mind

His precepts pure, and do give light to eyes that be full blind.

9 The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever :
The judgments of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether ;

10 And more to be embraced are than fined gold alway :
The honey and the honey-comb
are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy servant is forewarn'd
to have God in regard:
And in performance of the same
there shall be great reward.

12 But, Lord, what earthly man doth
the errors of his life ?
Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most rife.

13 And keep me that presumptuous prevail not over me :
And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth and heart also,
my words and thoughts each one :
For my redeemer and my strength,
O Lord, thou art alone.

2 And send thee from his holy place
his help at every need,
And so in Sion stablish thee
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice
that now to him is done :
And so receive most graciously thy burnt-offrings each one.

4 According to thy hearts desire
the Lord grant unto thee,
And all thy counsel and device
full well perform may he.

5 We shall rejoyce when thou us
and our banners display (sav'st, Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace,
And send him help by his right hand

PSALM XXI. Or to St. David's Tune.

O Lord, how joyful is the King in thy strength & thy pow'r!

Ex-ceed-ing-ly he doth rejoyce in thee his Sa-vi-our?

For thou hast gi-ven un-to him his god-ly heart's desire:

To him nothing thou hast deny'd of that he did require.

To him nothing thou hast deny'd of that he did require.

O Lord, how joyful is the king in thy strength and thy pow'r!

Ex-ceed-ing-ly he doth rejoyce in thee his Sa-vi-our?

For thou hast gi-ven un-to him his god-ly heart's desire:

To him nothing thou hast deny'd of that he did require.

3 Thou didst prevent him with thy and blessings manifold, (gifts)

And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.

4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure,
To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid:

Great worship & great honour both thou hast upon him laid.

6 Thou wilt give him felicity
that never shall decay,
And with thy chearful countenance
wilt comfort him alway.

7 Because the King doth strongly in God for to prevail: (trust) Therefore his goodness & his grace
to save him will not fail.

8 Thine enemies shall feel thy force,
and those that thee withstand Find out thy foes, and let them feel
the pow'r of thy right hand.

9 And like an oven burn them, Lord,
in fiery flame and fume:

Thine anger shall destroy them all and fire shall them consume. (earth)

10 And thou shalt root out of the
their fruit that should increase:
And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.

11 For why? much mischief they con-against thy holy Name: (triv'd)

Yet did they fail, and had no pow'r
for to perform the same.

12 But as a mark thou shalt them set in a most open place.
And charge thy bow-strings readily against their very face.

13 Be thou exalted, Lord, therefore in thy strength every hour:

So shall we sing right solemnly praising thy might and power.

Psalm 22.

A. 3. Voc.

And helpst not when I do make my great complaint and cry?

2 To thee, my God, ev'n all day long
I do both cry and call:

I cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.

3 But thou that in thy holy place continually dost dwell,

Thou art the joy, the comfort and glory of Israel.

4 And he in whom our Fathers old,
had all their hope for ever: (thee

And when they put their trust in thou didst them still deliver.

5 They were deliver'd ever when they called on thy Name:

And for the faith they had in thee
they were not put to shame.

6 But I am now become more like a worm than to a man:

An out-cast whom the people scorn
with all the spite they can.

7 All men despise as they behold me walking on the way: (heads,

They grin, make mouths, & nod their
and on this wise do say,

8 This

8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love, Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.

9 But from the prison of the womb.
I was by thee releast :
Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck the breast.

10 I was committed from my birth
with thee to have abode :
Since I was in my mother's womb,
thou hast been still my God.

The second part.

11 Then, Lord, depart not now from
in this my present grief, (me
Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.

12 So many bulls do compass me
that be full strong of head :
Yea bulls so fat as though they had in Basan field been fed.

13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay,
Much like a lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.

14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joynts in sunder break,
My heart doth in my body melt
like wax I am so weak.

(dry,
15 My strength doth like a potsherd
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last.

16 And many dogs do compass me,
in concil they do meet :
Conspiring still against my life,
piercing my hands and feet.

17 I was tormented so that I might all my bones have told :

Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.

18 My garments they divided have
in parts among them all :
And for my coat they did cast lots
to whom it might befall.

19 Therefore I pray thee be not far from me at my great need :
But rather, since thou art my strength,
to help me, Lord, make speed.

20 And from the sword save thou my
by thy might and thy pow'r :
And ever keep my darling dear
from dogs that would devour.

(would 21 And from the lion's mouth that me all in sunder shiver,
And from the horns of unicorns
Lord, safely me deliver.

22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy Majesty record : (Name
And in thy Church shall praise thee
of thee the living Lord.

The third part.

23 All ye that fear him praise thee thou Jacob, honour him : (Lord
And all ye seed of Israel
with rev'rence worship him

24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he hideth not away
His countenance when they do call,
but hears them when they pray.

25 Among the folk that fear the Lord
I will therefore proclaim (made Thy praise, and keep my promise
for setting forth thy Name.

26 The poor shall eat and be suffic'd,
and those that do endeavour,
To know the L^d, shall praise his name,
their hearts shall live for ever.

27 The coasts of all the earth shall the Lord, and seek his grace: (praise
The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blessed face.

28 The kingdoms of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore:
And he shall be their Governour
and King for evermore.

29 The rich men of his goodly gifts
shall feed and taste also:

And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.

30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste:
A seed shall serve and worship him
while any world shall last.

31 They shall declare, & plainly shew
his truth and righteousness Unto a people yet unborn,
who shall his Name confess.

And after drives me to the streams
which run most pleasantly.

3 And

3 And when I feel my self near lost
then doth he me home take,
Conducting me in his right paths
ev'n for his own Names sake.

4 And thô I were ev'n at death's door,
yet would I fear none ill:
For with thy rod & shepherd's crook
I am comforted still.

5 Thou hast my table richly deckt
in despite of my foe: (fresh) Thou hast my head with balm remy cup doth overflow.

6 And finally while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend
And in the house of God will I my life for ever spend.

Psalm 23.

Or to London Tune.

MY shepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need;
In pastures fair, with waters calm,
he setteth me to feed.

2 He did convert and glad my soul,
and brought my mind in frame.
To walk in paths of righteousness,
for his most holy Name.

3 Yea, thô I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill:

Thy rod and staff do comfort me,
and thou art with me still.

4 And in the presence of my foes
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt, O Lord, fill full my cup,
and wilt anoint my head.

5 Through all my life thy favour
so frankly shew'd to me,
That in thy house for evermore
my dwelling-place shall be.

Psalm 24.

A. 3. Voc.

The Earth is all the Lord's with all her store and fur-ni-ture:

Yea, his is all the world and all that therein doth endure.

2 For he hath fastly founded it
above the seas to stand;
And plac'd below the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.

3 Who is the man, O Lord, that shall ascend unto thy hill:
Or pass into thy holy place,
there to continue still?

4 He that hath pure hands and heart,
which nothing doth defile:
His soul not set on vanity,
and hath not sworn to guile.

5 Him that is such a one, the Lord
most highly shall regard:
And from his God and Saviour shall receive a just reward.

6 This is the stock of travellers,
in seeking of his grace:

As Jacob did the Israelite,
in that time of his race.

7 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state?

8 Who is the King of glorious state?
the strong and mighty Lord,
The mighty Lord in battel stout,
and trial of the sword.

9 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state?

10 Who is the King of glorious state?
the Lord of hosts it is:
The kingdom and the royalty
of glorious state is his.

PSALM XXV.

Southwel Tune.

Lift my heart to thee, my God and guide most just:

Now suffer me to take no shame for in thee do I trust.

Medius.

Medius.Psalm 25.A. 3. Voc.

I Lift my heart to thee, my God and guide most just:

Now suffer me to take no shame for in thee do I trust.

Bassus.Psalm 25.A. 3. Voc.

I Lift my heart to thee, my God and guide most just:

Now suffer me to take no shame for in thee do I trust.

2 Let not my foes rejoyce,
nor make a scorn of me:
And let them not be overthrowen
that put their trust in thee.

3 But shame shall them befall which harm them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right unto me, Lord, descry. (ways)

4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wait alway.

5 Thy mercies manifold remember, Lord, I pray:
Also thy pity plentiful,
for they have been alway.

6 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.

Nor after my deserts
let me thy mercy find:
But of thine own benignity,
Lord, have me in thy mind.

7 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach and such as go aside.

8 The humble he will teach his precepts to obey:
He will direct in all his paths
the lowly man alway.

9 For all the ways of God
both truth and mercy are,
To them that do his covenant
and statutes keep with care.

The second part.

10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord, I thee intreat,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
for it is wondrous great.

11 Whoso doth fear the Lord,
by him he shall be kept,
To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.

12 His soul shall evermore
in goodness dwell and stand,
His seed and his posterity
inherit shall the land.

13 All those that fear the Lord,
know his secret intent :
And unto them he doth declare his will and testament.

14 Mine eyes and thankful heart
to him I will advance,
That pluck'd my feet out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.

15 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my mone :
For I am poor and desolate,
and comfortless alone.

16 The troubles of my heart
are multiply'd indeed : Bring me out of this misery,
necessity and need.

17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my pain :

Remit my sin and mine offence,
and make me clean again,

18 O Lord, behold my foes,
how they do still encrease,
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that fain would live in peace.

19 Preserve and keep my soul,
and still deliver me :
And let me not be overthrown,
because I trust in thee.

20 Let mine integrity and uprightness still be,
My sure protection and defence,
because I wait on thee.

21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief,
I mean thy chosen Israel,
from all their pain and grief.

Bassus.Psalm 26.A. 3. Voc.

Lord, be my judge, and thou shalt see my paths be right and plain:

I trust in God, and hope that he with strength will me sustain.

2 Prove me, my God, I thee desire,
my ways to search and try:
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart espy.

3 Thy loving kindness in my sight
I do behold always:
I ever walked in thy truth,
and will do all my days.

4 I do not love to haunt or use with men whose deeds are vain:
To come in house I do refuse
with the deceitful train.

5 I much abhor the wicked sort,
their deeds I do despise:
I do not once to them resort
that hurtful things devise.

6 My hands I wash and do proceed
in works to walk upright:
Then to thine altar I make speed,
to offer there in sight.

7 That I may speak and teach the
that doth belong to thee,

(praise

And so declare how wondrous ways
thou hast been good to me.

8 O God, thy house I love most dear,
to me it doth excell:
My chief delight is to be near the place where thou dost dwell.

9 O shut not up my soul with them
in sin that take their fill;
Nor yet my life among those men
that seek much blood to spill.

10 For in their hands much mischief
their lives therewith abound:
And nothing else in their right hand
but bribes is to be found.

11 But I in righteousness resolve
my time and days to spend:
Therefore, that I may never swerve,
let thy grace me defend.

12 My foot is staid for all assays,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I give praise
in all the peoples sight.

Psalm 27.

A. 3. Voc.

T He Lord is both my health and light, shall man make me dismay'd ?

Since God doth give me strength and might, why should I be afraid ?

2 While that my foes with all their begin with me to brawl, (strength
And think to eat me up, at length themselves have caught the fall.

3 Tho' they in camp against me lie,
my heart is not afraid :
And if in battel they will try,
I trust in God for aid.

4 One thing of God I do require,
that he will not deny :
For which I pray and will desire
till he to me apply :

5 That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell,
To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well.

6 In time of dread he shall me hide
within his place most pure,
And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.

(grace
7 At length I know the Lord's good shall make me strong and stout,
My foes to foil and clean deface,
that compass me about.

D 2

8 There.

8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise :
With psalms and songs I will apply to laud the Lord always.

The Second part.

9 Lord, hear the voice of my request,
for which to thee I cry :
Have mercy, Lord, on me oppress,
and help me speedily.

10 My heart confesseth unto thee,
I sue to have thy grace :
Then seek my face, saidst thou to me,
Lord, I will seek thy face.

11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide :
Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guide.

12 My parents both their son forsook,
and cast me off at large :

Yet then the Lord himself did take
of me the care and charge.

13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right,
For fear of such as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.

14 O leave me not unto the will
of them that be my foes,
For they surmise against me still false witness to depose.

15 I utterly should faint, but that
this hope supporteth me,
That in the land wherein I live
God's goodness I shall see.

(thou art,

16 Trust still in God whose whole
his will abide thou must,
He will support and ease thy heart,
if thou in him do trust.

2 My voice and supplications hear,
when unto thee I cry,
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy ark most high.

6 To render thanks unto the Lord
how great a cause have I,
My voice, my pray'r, and my com-

3 Repute me not among those men
in sin that take their fill: (friends, That speak right fair unto their
but think in heart full ill.

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distress :
My hope, my help, my heart's relief,
my song shall him confess.

4 According to those wicked deeds
which they did most regard :
And after their inventions
let them receive reward.

8 He is our strength and our defence,
our foes for to resist :
The health and the salvation
of his elect by Christ.

5 Because they never mind the words of God, he will therefore Instead of building of them up, destroy them evermore.

Tho' gripes of grief & pangs full sore
abide with us all night,
The Lord to joy shall us restore
before the day be light.

6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say,
Tush, I am sure to feel none ill,
my wealth shall not decay.

7 For thou, O Lord, of thy good grace
didst send me strength and aid:
But when thou turn'st away thy face,
my mind was sore dismay'd.

8 Wherefore again then did I cry
to thee, O Lord of might:
And my complaints did multiply,
praying both day and night.

9 What gain is in my blood, said I,
if death destroy my days?
Can dust declare thy Majesty,
or give thy truth its praise?

10 Wherefore, my God, some pity take
O Lord, I thee desire:
Do not this simple soul forsake,
of thee help I require. (woe

11 Then didst thou turn my grief and into a chearful voice: (fro,
The mourning weed thou took'st me
and mad'st me to rejoyce.

12 Wherefore my soul incessantly
shall sing unto thy praise:
My Lord my God to thee will I give laud and thanks always.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
all Glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

O Lord, I put my trust in thee, let nothing work me shame :

As thou art just de—li—ver me, and set me free from blame.

1 Hear me, O Lord, and that anon.
to help me make good speed :
Bethou my rock and house of stone,

3 For why ? as stones thy strength is thou art my fort and tow'r :
For thy Names sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy pow'r.

4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare,
which they for me have laid :
Thou art my strength, & all my care
is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands, Lord, I commit
my soul, which is thy due :
Because thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.

6 I hate such folk as will not part from things to be abhorr'd :
When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excell : (annoy,
Thou seest when ought would me
and know'st my soul full well.

8 Thou hast not left me in their hand
that would me overcharge :
But thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

12 As men once dead are out of mind,
so am I now forgot :
As little use of me they find,
as of a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my mind did fray,
How they conspir'd and went about
to take my life away.

14 But,

14 But, Lord, I trust in thee for aid,
not to be overtrod :

For I confess, and still have said
thou art the Lord my God.

15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord, is in thy hand :

Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.

16 To me thy servant, Lord, express and shew thy joyful face :

And save me, Lord, for thy goodness,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord, let me not be put to shame,
because on thee I call :

But let the wicked bear the blame,
and into the grave fall.

18 O Lord, make dumb their lips out-
which are addit to lies,

And cruelly with pride and spite against the just devise.

19 O how great good hast thou in laid up full safe for them

That fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the sons of men !

20 Thy presence shall them fence and from all proud brags and wrongs :
Within thy place thou shalt them hide
from all the strife of tongues.

21 Thanks to the Lord that hath de-
on me his grace so far,
Me to defend with watch and ward
as in a town of war.

22 Thus did I lay both day and night
when I was sore oppressd, Lo, I am clean cast out of sight,
yet heard'st thou my request.

23 Ye saints, love ye the Lord alway,
the faithful he doth guide :
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.

24 Be of good courage evermore,
on God your strength depend :
For those that put their trust in him
he ever will defend.

Psalm 32.

A. 3. Voc.

The man is blest, whose wickedness the Lord doth clean pass by :

And he whose sin is likewise hid, and cover'd se-cret-ly.

Bassus.

Psalm 32.

A. 3. Voc.

The man is blest, whose wickedness the Lord doth clean pass by :

And he whose sin is likewise hid, and cover'd se-cret-ly.

2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin :
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilst that I kept close my sin
in silence and constraint,
My bones did wear and waste away
with daily moan and plaint.

4 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,
That all my blood & humours moist
to driness did convert.

5 I did therefore confess my fault,
and all my sins discover :
Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my sins pass over.

(fore,

6 The humble man shall pray there-
and seek thee in due time :
So that the floods of waters great
shall have no power on him.

7 When trouble and adversity
do compass me about,
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.

8 Come hither, and I will thee teach
how thou shalt walk aright :
I will thee guide as I my self have learn'd by proof and sight.

9 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule, Whose mouth without a rein or bit
from harm thou canst not rule.

10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefs sustain :
But unto him that trusts in God,
his goodness shall remain.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice :
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
with chearfulness rejoyce.

Psalm 34.

A. 3. Vo.

I Will give laud and honour both un--to the Lord always,

Al-fo my mouth for evermore shall speak unto his praise.

2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in soul, in heart, and voice :
That humble men and mortify'd
may hear and so rejoyce.

4 For I my self besought the Lord,
he answer'd me again,
And me deliver'd instantly
from all my fear and pain.

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord, Let us exalt his holy Name
always with one accord.

5 Whofo they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear:
Their countenance shall not be dasht
they need it not to fear.

6 This poor distressed man for help
unto the Lord did call ;
Who did him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place,
To save all such as do him fear,
that nothing them deface.

8 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and just :
O happy man that maketh him
his only stay and trust.

9 Fear ye the Lord, ye holy ones,
above all earthly thing :
For they that fear the living Lord,
are sure to lack nothing.

10 The lions shall be hunger-bit,
and pin'd with famine much :
But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second part. (dear,

11 Come near to me, my Children
and to my words give ear :
I will you teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord shall fear.

12 Who is the man that would live
and lead a godly life? (long,

13 See thou refrain thy tongue and from all deceit and strife. (lips

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed :
Enquire for peace and quietness,
and follow it with speed.

15 For why? the eyes of God above
upon the just are bent :
His ears likewise to hear the cry
of the poor innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his upon the wicked train : (brows
And cuts away the memory
that should of them remain.

17 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them so,
That out of pain and misery
forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is ever nigh to them
that broken-hearted are :
And for the contrite spirit he salvation doth prepare.

19 Full many be the miseries
that righteous men endure :
But of deliverance from them all the Lord doth them secure.

20 The Lord doth so preserve & keep their very bones alway,
That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.

21 The sin shall slay the wicked man,
which he himself hath wrought :
And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
are ever safe and sound :
And as for those that trust in him
nothing shall them confound.

what man is like to thee?

The second part. (them

11 Thou dost defend the weak from that are both stout and strong :
And rid the poor from wicked men,
that spoil and do them wrong.

to witness things untrue :
And to accuse me they devise
of things I never knew.

With fasting did I faint full sore,
and pray'd with heart most sad.

15 As they had been my brethren dear
I did my self behave :
As one that mourneth heavily about his mother's grave.

16 But they in mine adversity
did gather in a rout :
Yea, abject slaves reproachfully
at me did mock and flout.

17 The belly-gods & flattering train,
that all good things deride,
At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouths aside.

18 L^d, when wilt thou for me appear?
why dost thou stay and pause?
O rid my soul, mine only dear,
out of these lions claws.

19 And then will I give thanks to before the Church always : (thee
And where most of the people be,
there will I shew thy praise.

20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault :
Nor let them wink or turn their eye,
that causeless me assault.

The third part. (say,

21 Of peace no word they think or their talk is all untrue:
They still consult and would betray
all those that peace ensue.

22 With open mouth they run at me,
their fury is like fire :
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see
the thing that we desire.

23 But, L^d, thou seest what ways they and what they do intend : (take
Be not far off, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.

24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right :
Revenge my cause, O Lord my God,
and aid me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God set me free :
And let them not their pride express,
nor triumph over me.

26 Let not their hearts rejoyce & cry,
even so we would it have :
Nor give them cause to say on high,
he's sunk into the grave.

27 Confound them with rebuke and that joy when I do mourn : (shame,
And pay them home with spite and that brag at me with scorn. (blame,

28 Let them most heartily rejoyce,
which love mine upright way :
Let them all times with heart & voice
still praise the Lord, and say,

29 Great is the Lord, and doth excel,
and he doth much delight
To see his servants prosper well,
it is his pleasant sight.

30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply
thy righteousness to praise :
To thee the Lord my God will I
give laud and thanks always.

In rest and peace they shall rejoyce,
for nought shall them withstand.

12 The leud men and malicious
against the just conspire :

They gnash their teeth at him, as men
which do his bane desire.

13 But while ungedly men thus think,
the Lord laughs them to scorn :

when some are hard bestead :

When others shall be hunger-bit,
they shall be clad and fed.

20 For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to God,

or smoak that flies abroad.

The third part.

21 Behold the wicked borrows much,
and never pays again :

Whereas the just by lib'ral gifts
the needy doth sustain.

22 For they whom God doth blefs

26 He gives always most lib'rally,
and lends where there is need:

By which he doth from God secure a blessing to his seed.

27 Flee vice therefore & wickedness,
and virtue do embrace:

So God shall grant thee long to have
on earth a dwelling-place.

28 For God so loveth equity,
and shews to his such grace,

That he preserveth them, but doth
cut off the wicked race.

29 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land,

Having as lords all things therein
in their own pow'r and hand.

30 The just man's mouth doth ever of matters wise and high: (speak

His tongue doth talk of judgment, & of truth and equity.

31 For in his heart the law of God
his Lord doth still abide:

So that where-ever he doth go
his foot shall never slide.

32 The wicked like a greedy wolf
the just man doth beset,

By all means seeking him to kill,
and take him in his net.

The fourth part.

33 But though he fall into his hands,
yet God will succour send:

Thô men against him sentence give,
God will him yet defend.

34 Wait thou on God & keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then

PSALM XXXIX.

Wind for Tune.

I Said, I will look to my ways, for fear I should go wrong:

I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

Medius.Psalm 39.A. 3. Voc.

I Said, I will look to my ways, for fear I should go wrong:

I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

Bassus.Psalm 39.A. 3. Voc.

I Said, I will look to my ways, for fear I should go wrong:

I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

2 As with a bit I will keep fast
my mouth with force and might,
Not once to whisper all the while the wicked are in fight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake no
but kept me close and still: (word, Yea, from good talk I did refrain,
but fore against my will. (breast,

4 My heart wax'd hot within my
with musing, thought and doubt,
Which did increase and stir the fire:
at last these words burst out:

5 Lord number out my life and days
which yet I have not past,

So that I may be certify'd
how long my life shall last.

6 Lord thou hast pointed out my in length much like a span: (life
Mine age is nothing unto thee,
so vain is every man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
in vain himself annoy,
In getting goods and cannot tell
who shall the same enjoy.

8 Therefore now, Lord, what wait I what help do I desire? (for?
Of truth my help depends on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

9 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord, quit me out of hand,
And make me not a scorn to fools
that nothing understand.

10 I was as dumb, and to complain
no trouble might me move:
Because I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.

11 Lord take from me thy scourge &
I can them not withstand: (plague,
I faint and pine away for fear
of thy most heavy hand.

(buke,
12 When thou for sin dost man re-
he waxeth woe and wan,
As doth a cloth that moths have fret,
so vain a thing is man.

13 Lord, hear my suit, and give good regard my tears that fall: (heed,
I sojourn like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a little, give me space
my strength for to restore,
Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seen no more.

which I must shew abroad,
And sing new songs of thanks always unto the Lord our God.

3 When all the folk these things shall

to all the Church I show.

14 Thy tender mercy, Lord, from me withdraw thou not away :
But let thy love and verity preserve me every day.

15 For I with many troubles am encompassed about :
My sins so greatly do increase,
I cannot spy them out.

16 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head :
My heart doth faint for very fear,
that I am almost dead.

that wish me any ill.

Fie on him, fie for shame.

21 Let them in thee have joy and that seek to thee always: (wealth
That those that love thy saving health
may say, To God be praise.

Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health full well I know.

22 But as for me, I am but poor,
opprest and brought full low:

3 Devouring fire,
shall go before his face ;
A great tempest
shall round about him trace.
4 Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equity and right :
5 Saying, Go to,
and now my saints assemble.
My past they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.
6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness :
For God is judge
of all things more and less.
7 Hear, my people,
for I will now reveal ;
Lift Mrael
I'll nought from thee conceal.
Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee 8 For giving not all manner offerings to me.

9 I have no need to take of thee at all Goats of thy fold,
or calf out of thy stall :
10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woods :
On thousand hills
cattel are mine own goods :
11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains:
All beasts are mine (tains.
that haunt the fields and foun-
12 Hungry if I were,

14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving,

15 Call upon me
when troubled thou shalt be :
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.

16 To the wicked
thus saith th'eternal God,
Why dost thou preach
my laws and hefts abroad :

17 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused,
And hat'st to be
by discipline reformed ?

My words, I say
thou dost reject and hate :

18 If that thou see
a thief, as with thy mate,
Thou run'st with him,
and so your prey seek out ;
And art all one
with the adulterous rout.

19 Thou giv'st thy self to backbite and to slander :
And how thy tongue
deceives it is a wonder.

20 Thou sitt'st musing
thy brother how to blame,
And how to put
thy mother's son to shame.
21 These things thou didst,
and whilst I held my tongue,
Thou didst me judge,
because I staid so long,
Like to thy self :
yet tho I keep long silence,
Once shalt thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompence.

22 Consider this that forget the Lord,
and fear not when
he threatneth with his word,
Lest without help
I spoil you as a prey.

23 But he that thanks
offereth, praiseth me aye,
Saith the Lord God :

I will him teach
God's saving-health to embrace.

Psalm 50.

A. 3. Voc.

THE God of gods, the Lord, hath call'd the earth by name:

From whence the Sun doth rise, un--to the setting of the same.

1 From Sion his fair place,
his glory bright and clear,
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appear.

3 Our God shall come in haste,
to speak he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.

4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise
He will call forth to judge and try,
the people that are his.

5 Bring forth my saints, faith he,
my faithful flock so dear:
Which are in band & league with me,
my law to love and fear.

6 And when these things are try'd,
then shall the heavens record,
That God is just, and all must bide
the judgment of the Lord.

7 My people, O give heed,

Wash me, O Lord, and make me clean from this unjust and sinful act,

And pu--ri--fie me once again from this foul crime and bloody fact.

3 Remorse and sorrow do constrain
me to acknowledge mine excels:

My sin alas doth still remain
before my face without release.

4 Against thee only have I sinn'd,
committing evil in thy sight:
And if I should no mercy find,
yet were thy judgments just & right.

5 It is too manifest, alas,
that first I was conceiv'd in sin:

Yea, of my Mother so born was,
and yet, vile wretch, remain therein.

6 Also behold, Lord, thou dost love
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisdom from above
thou hast reveal'd me to convert.

7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner than the glass:
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whiteness shall I pass.

that I may praise thee with my voice:
And that my strength may now amend,

17 The heavy heart the mind oppress,
O Lord, thou never dost reject:
Because in truth it is the best,

After thy mercies mul-ti-tude do thou my sins deface.

1 Yea, wash me clean from mine of-
and mine iniquity : (fence,
For I do own my faults, and still
my sin is in mine eye.

3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case :
And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face :

(done,
4 That in the things which thou hast upright thou may'st appear :
And when thou judgest all may see that thou art very clear.

5 Behold, in wickedness my kind and shape I did receive :
My sinful mother at the first
in sin did me conceive.

6 But lo, truth in the inward parts
is pleasant unto thee ;
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealed hast to me.

7 With hyssop, Lord, besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so :
Yea, wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter than the snow.

8 Of joy and gladness make thou me
to hear the pleasant voice :
That so the bones wth thou, O Lord,
hast broken may rejoyce.

9 From the beholding of my sins,
Lord, turn away thy face :

And all my deeds of wickedness
do utterly deface.

10 O God create in me a heart
unspotted in thy sight :
Within my bowels, Lord, renew
a firm and stable spirit.

11 Cast me not from thy sight, nor thy holy spirit away : (take The comfort of thy saving health give me again, I pray.

12 With thy free spirit stablish me,
and I will teach therefore Sinners thy ways, that so they may turn to thee evermore.

The second part.

13 O God that art God of my health,
from blood deliver me :
That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.

14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou, O Lord, unloose :
The praises of thy Majesty
my mouth shall then disclose.

15 I would have offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee :
But pleased with burnt-offerings
I know thou wilt not be.

16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice delightful in God's eyes :
A broken and an humble heart,
Lord, thou wilt not despise.

17 In thy good will, deal gently, Lord,
to Sion, and withall, Grant that of thy Jerusalem
uprear'd may be the wall.

18 Burnt-offerings, gifts and sacrifice of justice in that day Thou shalt accept, and calves they upon thine altar lay. (shall)

PSALM LIX.

Exeter Tune.

Send aid, and save me from my foes, O Lord, I pray to thee:

Defend and keep me from all those that rise and strive with me.

Send aid, and save me from my foes, O Lord, I pray to thee:

Defend and keep me from all those that rise and strive with me.

Send aid and save me from my foes, O Lord, I pray to thee:

Defend and keep me from all those that rise and strive with me.

2 O L^d, preserve me from those men,
whose doings are not good:
And set me sure and safe from them
that thirst still after blood.

Bassus.Psalm 62.A. 3. Voc.

MY soul to God shall give good heed, and him a--lone attend :

For why ? my health and hope to speed doth whole on him depend.

- 2 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my health, and aid,
He is my stay, that no pretence,
shall make me much dismayd.
- 3 O wicked folk how long will ye
use craft, sure ye must fall :
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tott'ring wall.
- 4 Whom God doth love, ye seek al-
to put him to the worle :
Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.
- 5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire :
From all ill feats me to defend,
none but him I require.
- 6 He is my rock, my fort, and tow'r,
my health is of his grace,
He doth support me that no pow'r
can move me out of place.
- 7 My glory and salvation doth
on him alone depend :

He is my strength, my stay, my wealth,
and still doth me defend.

8 O have your trust in him alway,
ye folk with one accord :
Pour out your hearts to him, and say,
our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sons of men deceitful are,
on balance but a sleight : (pare,
With things most vain do them com-
for they can hold no weight.

10 Trust not in wrong and robbery,
let vain delights be gone :
Though riches flow in suddenly,
set not your hearts thereon.

11 The Lord long since one thing did which here to mind I call :
He spake it oft, I heard it well,
that he alone doth all.

12 And that thou, Lord, art good and thy mercy doth exceed :
So that all sorts with thee shall find
according to their deed.

The second part.

12 What wonders to our fore-fathers
did he himself disclose,
In Egypt land, within the field
that call'd is Thaneos?

13 He did divide and part the sea,
through which he made a way
For them to pass, and on a heap
the waters made to stay.

14 He led them secret in a cloud
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.

15 He brake the rocks in wilderness,
and gave the people drink:
As plentiful as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.

16 He drew forth rivers out of rocks
that were both dry and hard,
Of such abundance, that no floods
to them might be compar'd.

17 Yet for all this against the Lord
their sin they did increase:
And stirr'd up him that is most high
to wrath in wilderness?

18 They tempted God within their like people of mistrust; (hearts, Requiring such a kind of meat
as served to their lust:

19 They spake against him, and thus in their unfaithfulness, (said
What! can this God prepare for us
a feast in wilderness?

20 Behold, he strake the stony rock,
and floods forthwith did flow:
But can he now give to his folk both bread and flesh also?

21 When God heard this he waxed with Jacob and his seed; (wroth
So did his indignation
'gainst Israel proceed.

26 He bad the east-wind blow away,
and brought in the south-west.

27 He rain'd down flesh as thick as
and fowls as thick as sand: (dust,

28 Which he did cast amid'st the place where all their tents did stand.

29 Then did they eat exceedingly,
and all men had their fills:
Yet more and more they did desire to serve their lusts and wills.

30 But as the meat was in their mouths,
his wrath upon them fell,

31 And slew the strength of all their
and choice of Israel. (youth,

32 Yet fell they to their wonted sin,
and still they did him grieve:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.

33 Their days therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vain:
Their years did waste and pass away
with terror and with pain.

34 But ever when he plagued them,
they sought him instantly, (strength,

The fourth part.

37 For why? their hearts were nothing to him, nor what he said: (beast
Nor yet to keep or to perform
the cov'nant that he made.

38 Yet

38 Yet was he still so merciful,
when they deserv'd to die,
That he forgave them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.

Yea, many a time he turn'd his wrath
and did them not surprize :
And would not suffer all his whole
displeasure to arise :

39 Considering they were but flesh,
or like to wind and rain
Passing away, and never doth return and come again.

40 How oftentimes in wilderness
did they the Lord provoke !
How did they move and stir the Lord
to plague them with his stroke !

41 Yet did they turn again to sin,
and tempted him full soon,
Prescribing to the mighty God
what things they would have done.

42 Not thinking of his mighty hand,
nor of the day when he Deliver'd them out of the hands of the fierce enemy.

43 Nor how he wrought his miracles
(as they themselves beheld)
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.

44 Nor how he turned by his pow'r
their waters into blood :
That no man might receive his drink
at river or at flood.

45 Nor how he sent them swarms
which did them sore annoy :
And fill'd their country full of frogs,
which did their land destroy.

The fifth part.

46 Nor how he did their fruits unto the caterpillar give :
And of the labour of their hands
locusts did them deprive.

47 With hailstones he destroy'd their

And also all their sycamores,
did he consume with frost.

48 And yet with hailstones once again
the Lord their cattel smote,
And all their flocks & herds likewise
with thunderbolts full hot.

49 He cast upon them his fierce and indignation sore : (wrath, Amongst them evil angels sent,
which troubled them yet more.

50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least :
But gave unto the pestilence
the man as well as beast.

51 He strake also the first-born all that up in Egypt came :
And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.

52 But as for his own people dear,
he did preserve and keep :
And carry'd them thro' wilderness
ev'n like a flock of sheep.

53 Without all fear both safe & sound
he brought them out of thrall :
Whereas their foes with rage of seas
were overwhelmed all.

54 And brought them out into the
of his own holy land, (coasts Ev'n to the mount which he had got
by his strong arm and hand.

55 And there cast out the heathen
and did their land divide : (folk,
And in their tents he set the tribes
of Israel to abide.

56 Yet for all this, their God most high they stirr'd and tempted still,
And would not keep his testament,
nor yet obey his will.

57 But as their fathers turned back,
ev'n so they went astray, (bend,
Much like a bow that would not but slip and start away.

to kindle in his breast :
The wickedness of Israel
he did so much detest.

did perish ev'ry one : (also whom sleep could not confine :

refreshed is with wine.

67 The tent and tabernacle he of Joseph did refuse :
Also the tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse :

68 But he the tribe of Judah chose,
that he therein might dwell :
Ev'n the most noble mount Sion,
which he did love so well.

69 And there he did his temple build,
both sumptuously and sure :
Like as the earth which he hath

his flock and charge did feed,
And prudently with all his pow'r
did govern them indeed.

And so didst turn thee from thy rage,

5 Shall thy fierce anger never end,
but still be pour'd on us?
And shall thy wrath it self extend upon all ages thus?

and glorifie thy Name.

10 For why? thou art so much of all power is thine own: (might,
Thou workest wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me, Lord, thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:

O joyn my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.

12 To thee will I give thanks & praise,
O Lord, with all my heart:
And glorifie thy Name always,
because my God thou art.

13 For why? thy mercy shew'd to me
is great and doth excell:
Thou sett'st my soul at liberty
out from the lowest hell.

(rise,
14 O Lord, the proud against me
and heaps of men of might:
They seek my soul and in no wise
will have thee in their fight.

15 Thou, Lord, art merciful and kind,
full slack and slow to wrath:
Thy goodness is full great, I find thy truth no measure hath.

16 Oh turn to me and mercy grant,
thy strength to me apply:
O help and save thine own servant,
thy handmaids son am I.

17 On me some sign of favour show,
that all my foes may see
And be asham'd, because, Lord, thou dost help and comfort me.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

Pfalm 88.

A. 3. Voc.

Lord God of health, the hope and stay thou art alone to me;

I call and cry throughout the day, and all the night to thee.

1 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on high :
Incline thine ear, O Lord, attend,
and hearken to my cry.

2 For why? with wormy heart is fill'd,
and dorth in trouble dwell :
My life & breath doth almost yield,
and draweth nigh to hell.

3 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall :
And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

4 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remain :
It were more ease for me to be
with them the which are slain.

5 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou hast clean forgot :
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st them not.

6 Yea, like to one shut up full sure within the lower pit,
In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

7 Thine anger & thy wrath likewise
full sore on me doth lie :
And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and try.

8 Thou put'st my friends far off from
and mak'st them hate me sore :

I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.

9 My sight doth fail thro' grief & wo',
I call to thee, O God :
Throughout the day my hands also to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

10 Dost thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous works of fame?
Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same?

11 Or shall thy loving kindness, Lord,
be preached in the grave?
Or shall with them that are destroy'd
thy truth her honour have?

12 Shall they that lie in dark full low,
see all thy wonders great?
Or there shall they thy justice know where men all things forget?

13 But I, O Lord, to thee always do cry and call apace :
My prayer also e're it be day
shall come before thy face.

(soul,

14 Why dost thou, Lord, abhor my
in grief that seeketh thee?

Thy terrors they do not assuage,
but press me heavily.

beset me on each side. (great)

And set him up whom I elect among the folk to me.

The third part.

21 My servant David I have found,
for he doth please me well:
And have anointed him King of my people Israel.

22 For why? my hand is ready still
with him for to remain:
And with mine arm also I will
him strengthen and sustain.

23 The enemies shall not oppress,
they shall him not devour:
Nor shall the sons of wickedness
on him have any power.

24 His foes likewise I will destroy
before his face in sight:
And those that hate him I will plague
and strike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy also shall upon him ever lie:
And in my name his horn shall be exalted very high.

26 His Kingdom I will set to be upon the sea and land;
Also the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.

27 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus shall say,
My father and my God thou art,
my rock of health and stay.

28 As my first-born I will him take
of all on earth that springs:
His might and honour I will raise above all earthly kings.

29 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my self have told:
My faithful cov'nant to fulfill
my mercy I will hold.

30 Also his seed I will sustain
for ever strong and sure:
So that his fear shall still remain
while heaven and earth endure.

The fourth part.

31 If that his sons forsake my law,
and so begin to swerve:
And of my judgments have no awe,
nor will not them observe.

32 Or if they do not use aright
my laws for them prepar'd:
But set all my commandments light,
and will not them regard.

33 Then with the rod will I begin their doings to amend,
And so will scourge them for their sin
whenever they offend.

34 But yet my mercy and goodness
I will not take away
From him, nor let my faithfulness
in any wise decay.

35 But sure my cov'nant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke:
No word the which my lips have shall alter or be broke: (told,

and that perform will I;
With David I shall keep my promise,
to him I will not lie:

37 His seed for evermore shall reign,
also his throne of might:
As doth the Sun it shall remain
for ever in my sight.

38 And as the Moon within the sky
for ever standeth fast
A faithful witness from on high,
so shall his Kingdom last.

full low upon the earth. (short Thou hast cut off and made full
his youth and joyful days :
And rais'd of him an ill report
with shame and great dispraise.

47 How long away from me, O
for ever wilt thou turn ?
And shall thine anger still away
as fire consume and burn ?
48 O call to mind, remember then,
my time consumeth fast :
Why hast thou made the sons of men
as things in vain to waste ?

49 What man is he that liveth here,
and death shall never see ?
Or from the hand of hell his soul shall he deliver free ? (goodness 50 Where is, O Lord, thine own
so oft declar'd before,
Which by thy truth and uprightness
to David thou hast sworn ?

that on thy servants lie :
The railings of the people all,
born in my breast have I.
52 Wherewith, O Lord, thine enemies
blasphemed have thy Name :
The steps of thine anointed one
they cease not to defame.

53 All praise be given unto thee,

From this time forth for evermore,

Psalm 96.

A. 3. Voc.

Bassus.

Bassus:

Psalm 96.

A. 3. Voc.

Sing ye with praise un--to the Lord new songs with joy and mirth :

Sing unto him with one accord all people on the earth.

Yea, sing unto the Lord alway,
praise ye his holy Name;
Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.

Among the heathen all declare his honour round about;
To shew his wonders do not spare
in all the world throughout.

(might For why? the Lord is much of
and worthy of all praise;
And he is to be dread of right,
above all gods always.

For all the gods of heathen folk
are idols that will fade;
But yet our God he is the Lord
that hath the heavens made.

All praise and honour also dwell
ever before his face;
Both pow'r and might likewise excel
within his holy place.

Ascribe unto the Lord therefore,
all men with one accord;
All might and worship evermore
ascribe unto the Lord.

Ascribe unto the Lord also
the glory of his Name;

Also into his courts do go
with gifts unto the same.

The second part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord
within his temple bright;
Let all the people of the world
be fearful at his sight.

10 Tell all the world, be not afraid,
the Lord doth reign above;
Yea, he the earth so fast hath stay'd
that it can never move.

11 And that it is the Lord alone that rules with princely might
To judge the nations ev'ry one
with equity and right.

12 The heav'ns shall joyfully begin,
the earth likewise rejoyce,
The sea with all that is therein
shall shout and make a noise.

13 The fields shall joy, & ev'ry thing
that springeth on the earth;
The wood and ev'ry tree shall sing
with gladness and with mirth.

14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might;
When he shall justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

THE Lord doth reign, whereat the earth may joy with pleasant voice:

Also the isles with joyful mirth may triumph and rejoyce.

2 Both clouds and darkness likewise and round about him beat; (swell)
Yea, right and justice ever dwell
and bide about his seat.

3 Yea, fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face;
Which all his enemies shall burn
abroad in ev'ry place.

4 His lightnings great full bright did
and to the world appear; Whereat the earth did look and gaze
with dread and deadly fear.

5 The hills like wax did melt in sight
and presence of the Lord;
They fled before that Ruler's might,
which guideth all the world.

6 The heavens likewise declare and his justice forth abroad,
That all the world may see & know
the glory of our God.

7 Confusion sure shall come to such as worship idols vain;
Also to those that glory much dumb pictures to maintain.

For all the idols of the world,
which they their gods do call;
shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.

With joy shall Sion hear this thing,
and Judah shall rejoyce;
for at thy judgments they shall sing,
with a most chearful voice.

For thou, O Lord, art set on high,
in all the earth abroad;
and art exalted wondrously
above each other god.

11 All ye that love the Lord do this,
hate all things that are ill;
For he doth keep the souls of his
from such as would them spill.

12 And light doth spring up to the
with pleasure for his part;
Gladness and joy likewise to them
that are of upright heart.

13 Ye right'ous in the Lord rejoyce,
his holiness proclaim;
And thankfully with heart & voice,
be mindful of the same.

3 The L^d doth make the people know his saving health and might;
And also doth his justice show
in all the heathens fight.

4 His grace and truth to Israel
in mind he doth record;
And all the earth hath seen right well
the goodness of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with joyful voice,
all people of the earth;
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoyce
to him with joy and mirth.

6 Upon the harp unto him sing,
give thanks to him always;
Rejoyce before the Lord our King
with trumpets sound his praise.

7 Yea, let the sea with all therein
for joy both rore and swell;
The earth likewise let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.

8 And let the floods rejoyce their fill,
and clap their hands apace;
Yea, let the mountains and the hills,
triumph before his face.

9 For he shall come to judge and try
the world and every wight:
And rule the people mightily
with justice and with right.

For as the ſmoak doth fade, ſo do hath looked down below ;

And out of heav'n moſt high he hath

before all time hast laid ;

The heav'ns also, they are the work which thine own hands have made.

26 They all shall perish and decay,
but thou remainest still ;

And they shall all in time wax old
ev'n as a garment will.

& changed they shall be ; (change,

But thou dost still abide the same,
thy years do never flee.

MY soul, praise the Lord, speak good of his Name,

O Lord, our great God, how dost thou ap—pear,

So pas—sing in glo—ry, that great is thy fame?

Honour and ma—je—sty in thee shine most clear.

2 With light as a robe,
thou hast thy self clad,
Whereby all the earth
thy greatness may see:
The heavens in such sort thou also hast spread,
That it to a curtain
compared may be.

3 His chamber-beams lie
in the clouds full sure,
Which as his chariots
are made him to bear:

And there with much swiftness
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of winds in the air.

4 He maketh his spirits
as heralds to go;
And lightning to serve
we see also prest:
His will to accomplish
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.

5 He groundeth the earth
ſo firmly and faſt,
That it once to move
none ſhall have ſuch pow'r.

6 The deep a fair covering for it made thou haſt :
Which by his own nature
the hills would devour.

7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee:
And ſo give due place
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
ſo fearful they be,
That in their great raging
they haſte ſoon away.

8 The mountains full high
they then up aſcend,
If thou do but ſpeak,
thy word they fulfill.
So likewise the valleys
moſt quickly deſcend,
Where thou them appointeſt remain they do ſtill.

9 Their bounds thou haſt ſet
how far they ſhall run ;
So that in their rage
not that paſſ they can.
For God hath appointed
they ſhall not return
The earth to deſtroy more,
which made was for man.

The ſecond part.

10 He ſendeth the ſprings
to ſtrong ſtreams or lakes,
Which run do full ſwift
among the huge hills :

11 Where both the wild aſſes
their thirſt oft-times ſlake,
And beaſts of the mountains
thereof drink their ill.

12 By theſe pleaſant ſprings
of fountains full fair,
The fowls of the air
abide ſhall and dwell :

Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches
their ſongs ſhall excell.

13 The mountains to moiſt
the clouds he doth uſe ;
The earth with his works
is wholly repleat.

14 So as the brute cattel
he doth not reſuſe ;
But graſs doth provide them,
and herb for man's meat.

15 Yea, bread, wine, and oyl
he made for man's ſake,
His face to reſreſh,
and heart to make ſtrong,

16 The cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make ;
Which trees he doth nourish
that grow up ſo long.

17 In theſe may birds build and make there their neſts :
In fir-trees the ſtorks remain and abide.

18 The high hills are ſuccours
for wild goats to reſt :
Alſo the rock ſtony
for conies to hide.

19 The moon then is ſet
her ſeaſons to run :
The days from the nights
thereby to diſcern :
And by the deſcending
alſo of the ſun,
The cold from heat alway thereby we do learn.

20 When darkneſs doth come
by God's will and pow'r,
Then creep forth do all the beaſts of the wood.

21 Their lions range roaring their prey to devour,
But yet it is thou, Lord,
which giv'eſt them food.

12 As soon as the sun
is up, they retire;
To couch in their dens
then are they full fain:
13 That man to his work may,
as right doth require,
Till night come and call him
to take rest again.

The third part.

14 How sundry, O Lord,
are all thy works found?
With wisdom full great
they are indeed wrought:
So that the whole world
of thy praise doth sound;
And as for thy riches,
they pass all mens thought.

15 So is the great sea
which large is and broad,
Where things that creep swarm,
and beasts of each sort.
16 There mighty ships sail,
and some lie at rode:
The whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport.

17 All things on thee wait,
thou dost them relieve:
And thou in due time
full well dost them feed.
18 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give,
They gather full gladly
those things which they need.

Thou openest thy hand,
and they find such grace,
That they with good things are filled we see.

29 But fore are they troubled
if thou turn thy face:
For if thou their breath take vile dust then they be.

30 Again, when thy spirit
from thee doth proceed
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue:
Then are they created
as thou hast decreed:
And dost by thy goodness
the dry earth renew.

31 The praise of the Lord
for ever shall last,
Who may in his works
by right well rejoyce.
32 His look can the earth make
to tremble full fast,
And likewise the mountains
to smoke at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God
sing will I always;
So long as I live,
my God praise will I.
34 Then am I most certain
my words shall him please:
I will rejoyce in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The sinners, O Lord,
consume in thine ire:
Also the perverse,
them root out with shame.
But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faithful,
Praise ye the Lord's Name.

The mighty word of God the Lord
his faultless truth did try.

19 The king sent and deliver'd him
from prison where he was;

20 The ruler of the people then did freely let him pass.

21 And over all his house he made him lord, to bear the sway:
And of his substance made him have the rule and all the stay.

22 That he might to his will instruct
the princes of the land;
And wisdom teach his senators rightly to understand.

23 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also;
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did sojourn to and fro.

24 His people he exceedingly
in number made to flow:
And over all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.

25 Whose heart he turned, that with they did his people treat; (hate
And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

26 His faithful servant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.

27 His wonderful and mighty signs
among them he did show;
And wonders in the land of Ham
then did they work also.

28 Darknes he sent, and made it dark
instead of brighter day:
And his commission and his word
they did not disobey.

great swarms of noisom flies :
And all the quarters of their land
were fill'd with crawling lice.

32 He gave them cold and stony hail
instead of milder rain :
And fiery flames within their land
he sent unto their pain.

33 He smote their vines & all the trees
whereon their figs did grow ;
And all the trees within their coasts
also did overthrow.

34 He spake, then caterpillars did and grasshoppers abound.

35 Eating the grass in all their land,
and fruit of all their ground.

from Egypt land to pass ;
And in the number of their tribes
no feeble one there was.

38 Egypt was glad and joyful then
when they did thence depart ;
For terrour and the fear of them
was fallen upon their heart.

39 To shroud them from the parching
a cloud he did display ; (heat
And fire he sent to give them light
when night had hid the day.

40 They asked, and he caused quails
to rain at their request ;
And fully with the bread of heav'n
their hunger he repress.

41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out ;
Also the dry and parched ground
like rivers ran about.

42 For of his holy cov'nant he was mindful evermore ;
Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long before.

43 He brought his people forth with

Out of the cruel land where they have liv'd in great annoy.

observe for evermore,
And faithfully obey his laws,

6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand:
At his right hand, Lord, suffer thou

7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein:

And let the stranger spoil the fruit
of all his toil before.

12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all,
That on his children fatherless

15 But in the presence of the Lord,
let them for ever stay;
That from the earth their memory

16 Since mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spite
The troubled man, and sought to slay
the woful hearted wight.

17 As he did cursing love, it shall happen unto him so:
And as he did not blessing love,
far from him it shall go.

18 As he with cursing clad himself,

20 Let this be the reward from God,
of him that is my foe;

Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.

21 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
deal graciously with me:
Deliver me for thy Name's sake,
for great thy mercies be.

22 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poor:
Also within my pained breast,
my heart is wounded sore.

And all the fatness of my flesh
is gone with grief and care.

25 And I also a vile reproach

And they that did upon me look,

26 Therefore, O God, my Saviour,
mine aid and succour be:
According to thy mercies great,
save and deliver me.

27 And they shall know thereby, that is thy most mighty hand: (this
And that 'tis thou that hast it done,
they well shall understand.

28 Altho they curse wth spite, yet thou shalt bless with loving voice:
When they rise up, & come to shame,
thy servant shall rejoyce.

29 Let them with shame be cloathed
that are mine enemies; (all,
And with confusion as a cloak
be covered likewise.

30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord:
And I among the multitude

A. 3.

I Love the Lord because my voice and prayer heard hath he :

I'll e—ver call on him, because he bow'd his ear to me.

Ev'n when the snares of cru-el death a-bout be—set me round :

When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and sorrow found.

4 Upon the Name of God my Lord,
then did I call and say,
Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is very merciful,
and just he is also:
And in our God compassion
doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in safety doth preserve
all those that simple be :
I was in woful misery,

4³ Tis thy commandment & thy will,
that with attentive heed,
Thy noble and divine precepts
we learn and keep indeed.

5 O would to God it might thee
my ways so to direct.
That I might always keep thy laws,
and never them reject.

6 So should no shame my life attain,
whilst I thus set mine eyes,
And bend my mind always to muse
on thy sacred decrees.

7 Then will I praise with upright

thy statutes and thy will.

Ceth. The ninth part.

65 According to thy promise, Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt:

For of thy grace in fundry sorts have I thy servant felt.

66 Teach me to judge always aright,
and give me knowledge sure:

For certainly I do believe thy precepts are most pure.

67 Before that I afflicted was,
I err'd and went astray:

But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my stay.

68 Thou art both good and gracious giving most liberally:

Thine ordinances how to keep,
therefore, O Lord, teach me.

69 The proud and the ungodly have against me forg'd a lye:

Yet thy commandments still observe
with all my heart will I.

70 Their hearts are swoln wth worldly they are exceeding fat: (wealth,
But in thy law I do delight,
and nothing seek but that.

71 O happy time may I well say,
when thou didst me correct:

For as a guide to learn thy laws,
thy rod did me direct.

72 So that to me thy word and law
is dearer manifold

Than thousands of silver and gold,
or ought that can be told.

God. The tenth part.

73 Thy hands have made & fashion'd thy creature for to be: (me,

Make me to understand thy law,
and keep it faithfully.

and I shall surely live,
For joy and consolation both thy law to me doth give.

And such as do thy cov'nants know,
and them alone desire.

80 My heart without all wavering
ler on thy laws be bent:
That no confusion come to me,
nor any discontent.

Caph. The eleventh part.

81 My soul doth faint and ceaseth not thy saving health to crave:
And for thy words sake still I trust
my hearts desire to have.

82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I say,
Oh when wilt thou me comfort, L^d,
why dost thou thus delay?

83 Like as a bottle in the smoke,
so am I parcht and dry'd,
Yet will I not out of my heart
let thy commandments slide.

84 How long, O Lord, shall I yet
before I see the hour, (live,
That on my foes which me torment
thy vengeance thou wilt pour?

85 Presumptuous men have digged thinking to make me sure : (pits,
Thus contrary unto thy law,
my hurt they do procure. (true,

86 But thy commandments are all
and causeless they me grieve :

To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou may'st me relieve. (stroy'd,

87 Almost they had me clean de-
and brought me quite to ground :

Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.

88 Restore me, Lord, again to life,
for thy mercies excel :

And so shall I thy cov'nants keep till death my life expel.

Flamed. The twelfth part.

89 In heav'n, O Lord, where thou dost

And shall to all eternity,
fast settled there endure.

90 From age to age thy truth abides,

as no tongue can exprefs. (so sure

91 Ev'n to this day we may well see how thou dost them preserve ;

According to thine ordinance,
for all things do thee serve.

my soul had comfort sought,

Long time e're now in my distress
I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts keep in memory full fast :

Because that thou by them, O Lord,
my life restored hast.

94 No man to me can title make,
for I am only thine ;

Save me therefore, for to thy laws
mine ears and heart incline.

For why ? thou hast me taught thereto live godly and well. (by

103 O Lord, how sweet unto my taste
I find thy words alway !

Doubtless no honey in my mouth
doth taste so sweet as they.

104 Thy laws have me such wisdom
that utterly I hate (learnt

All wicked and undgodly ways,
in every kind or rate.

Run. The fourteenth part.

105 Ev'n as a lantern to my feet,
so doth thy word shine bright :

And to my paths where-e're I go,
it is a flaming light. (form

106 I have both sworn and will per-
in truth and faithfulness,

That I will keep thy judgments just,
and them in life expels.

107 Affliction

107 Affliction hath me fore oppress,
and brought me to death's door :
O Lord, as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore. (and voice 108 The off'rings which with heart
most freely I thee give,
Accept and teach me how I may
after thy judgments live.

109 My soul is ever in my hand,
great dangers me assail :
Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will fail.
110 Altho the wicked laid their nets,
to make of me a prey,
Yet did I not from thy precepts
once swerve or go astray.

111 Thy law, O Lord, I taken have mine heritage to be :
Because such great delight and joy
it doth afford to me.
112 For evermore I have been bent
thy statutes to fulfill ;
Ev'n so likewise unto the end
I will continue still.

Samech. The fifteenth part.

113 All thoughts that vain & wicked
I do always detest; (are
But for thy precepts and thy laws,
I love them ever best.
114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
my shield and strong defence :
Therefore have I thy promises
lookt for with patience.

115 Therefore ye evil-doers all away from me be gone :
For the commandments will I keep
of God my Lord alone.
116 As thou hast promis'd so perform, that I may live, and be Never ashamed of the hope which thou hast given me.

117 Uphold me and I shall be safe
for ought they do or say ;
And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trod such under thy feet
as do thy statutes break :
For nought avails their subtilty,
their counsel is too weak.

119 Like dross thou casts the wicked
where-e're they go or dwell : (out Therefore can I as thy statutes
love nothing half so well.

120 My flesh doth quake for fear of my soul is much dismay'd : (thee
By reason of thy judgments great
my heart is fore afraid.

Min. The sixteenth part.

121 I do the thing that lawful is,
and give to all men right ;
Resign me not to them that would oppress me with their might.

122 But for thy servant surety be in that thing which is right ;
And never let the proud oppress
me with their rage and spite.

123 Mine eyes do fail with waiting thy health which I do crave ; (for
And for thy right'ous promise, Lord, whereby thou wilt me save.

124 Entreat thy servant lovingly,
and favour to him show ;
And thy statutes most excellent
teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble servant, Lord, I am,
grant me to understand,
How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.

126 It is now time, Lord, to begin,
for truth doth quite decay :
Thy law likewise they have made and none doth it obey. (void,

127 This is the cause wherefore I love
thy laws much more than gold,
Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold. (just,

128 I thought thy precepts almost and so them kept in store :
All crafty and malicious ways
I greatly do abhor.

Ps. The seventeenth part.

129 Thy cov'nants are most wonder-
and full of things profound : ful,
My ſoul therefore doth keep them
when they are try'd & found. (ſure 130 The entrance of thy word doth to men a light moſt clear : (give The ſimple likewiſe underſtand
when they it read or hear.

131 My mouth I open'd, & did pant, becauſe my ſoul did long
For thy commandments, w^{ch} always,
do guide my heart and tongue.

132 With mercy & compaſſion, Lord,
behold me from above,
As thou art wont ſuch to behold
as thy Name fear and love.

133 Direct my footſteps by thy word,
that I thy will may know ;
And never let iniquity
thy ſervant overthrow. (harms,

134 From ſlandrouſt tongues, & deadly
preſerve and keep me ſure :
Thy precepts then will I obſerve,
with heart upright and pure.

135 Thy countenance w^{ch} doth ſur-
the ſun in his bright hue, (mount Let ſhine on me, and by thy law teach me what to eſchew.

136 Rivers of waters from mine eyes
continually do fall ;
Becauſe I ſee how wicked men
thy laws keep not at all.

Psalm. The eighteenth part.

137 In ev'ry point, Lord, thou art juſt,
although the wicked grudge :

And when thou doſt ſentence pro-thou art a right'ous judge. (nounce

138 To render right, & flee from guile,
are two chief points moſt high :
And ſuch as thou haſt in thy law
commanded us ſtraitly.

139 My zeal hath even conſum'd me
and I am pin'd away, Becauſe my foes thy word forget,
and will it not obey.

140 Thy word's ſo very pure that doth much my heart rejoyce ;
Therefore thy ſervant nothing more
can love or make my choice.

141 And though I be nothing ſet by,
as one of baſe degree :
Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor ſhrink away from thee.

142 Thy truth and right'ouſneſs, O
for ever ſhall endure ; (Lord, Alſo thy law is truth it ſelf,
moſt conſtant and moſt pure.

143 Trouble and grief have ſeiz'd on & brought me wondrous low ; (me, Yet do I ſtill of thy precepts
delight to hear and know.

144 The right'ouſneſs of thy judg-doth laſt for evermore, (men Then teach them me, becauſe in them
my life lies up in ſtore.

Psalm. The nineteenth part.

145 With fervent heart I call'd and now answer me, O Lord : (cry'd,
That thy commandments to obſerve
I fully may accord.

146 To thee, my God, I make my ſuit,
ſave me, I humbly pray ;
Thy teſtimonies then will I always keep and obey.

147 To thee I cry, ev'n in the morn
before the day appear ;

Becauſe I hoped in thy word,
and thee alone do fear. (watches,

148 Mine eyes prevent the night-before they call, I wake :

That meditating on thy word,
I might ſome comfort take.

149 Incline thine ears to hear my
and pity on me take : (voice,

As thou waſt wont, ſo quicken me,
leſt life ſhould me forſake.

150 My foes draw near, and greedily
do after miſchief run :

From thy law they are far gone back,
and wickedly it ſhun.

151 There.

151 Therefore, O Lord, approach thou for need doth so require: (near,
For all thy precepts are most true,
then help, I thee desire.

152 Concerning thy commandments, I have learned long ago,
That they remain for evermore,
thou hast them grounded so.

Reph. The twentieth part.

153 My trouble and affliction
consider and behold;
Deliver me, for of thy law,
I ever take fast hold. (cause,

154 Defend my good and righteous
with speed some succour send:
From death as thou hast promised,
Lord, ever me defend.

155 As for the wicked for they are
from saving health and grace;
Because the way thy laws to know
they enter not the trace. (grant,

156 Great are thy mercies, Lord, I
what tongue can them explain?
According to thy judgments good,
let me my life obtain.

157 Tho many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore:
Yet from thy laws I never shrunk,
nor went aside therefore.

158 The great transgressors I beheld
with great anxiety;
Because they did not keep thy word,
nor ever seek to thee.

159 Behold, how I do love thy laws
with a most upright heart:
Then quicken me, O Lord, for thou
most good and gracious art.

160 Thy word from the beginning been ever true and just: (hath Thy right'ous judgments ev'ry one always continue must.

Schin. The twenty first part.

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause, but saw
It was in vain, for of thy word
my heart did stand in awe.

162 And surely of thy word I was more joyful and more glad,
Than he that of rich spoils and prey,
great store and plenty had.

163 But as for lies and falsities,
them I hate and detest:
Because thy holy law I do
above all things love best.

164 Ten times a day I praise the Ld,
singing with heart and voice:
Because thy righteous judgments do greatly my heart rejoyce.

165 Great peace and rest shall all such as do thy statutes love; (have No danger shall their quiet state impair or once remove. (Lord,

166 My only health and comfort,
I look for at thy hand; (things
And therefore have I done those which thou didst me command.

167 Thy laws have been my exercise,
which my soul most desir'd:
So much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I requir'd.

168 Thy statutes & commandments I have kept with heart upright;
For all my doings and my ways
are present in thy sight.

Tau. The twenty second part.

169 O Lord, let my complaint & cry
before thy face appear;
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to fear.

170 O let my supplication
have free access to thee;
And grant me, Lord, deliverance,
as thou hast promis'd me.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises
after most ample sort; (speak
When thou thy statutes hast me wherein stands my comfort (taught,

172 My tongue shall freely preach thy and evermore confess, (word, Thy famous acts and noble laws
are truth and right'ousness.

173 Stretch

173 Stretch out thy hand, I thee be-
and speedily me save; (seech,
For thy commandments to observe chosen, O Lord, I have.

174 Of thee alone, L^d, I crave health,
for other I know none:
And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long days to thy Name to magnifie: (live
And of thy judgments merciful
let me thy favour try.

176 For I was lost and went astray
much like a wandring sheep;
Oh! seek me, for I have not fail'd thy statutes for to keep.

De-li-ver me, I say, from liars lips alway, and tongues of false report.

3 What vantage or what thing,
Gett'st thou thus for to sting,
Thou false and flatt'ring liar?

4 Thy tongue doth hurt, I ween,
No less than arrows keen,
Or hot consuming fire.

5 Alas! too long I slack
Within these tents so black,
Which Kedars are by name.
By whom the flock elect,
And all of Isaac's sect
are put to open shame.

6 With them that peace did hate,
I came a peace to make,
And set a quiet life.

7 But when my tale was told,

O Lord, I am not puff'd in mind, I have no scornful eye:

I do not exercise my self in things that be too high.

Bassus.Psalm 131.A. 3. Voc.

O Lord, I am not puff'd in mind, I have no scornful eye:

I do not exercise my self in things that be too high.

2 But as a child that weaned is ev'n from his mother's breast :
So have I, Lord, behav'd my self
in silence and in rest.

3 O Israel trust in the Lord,
let him be all thy stay,
From this time forth for evermore
from age to age alway.

A. 3. Voc.

REmember David's troubles, Lord, how to the Lord he swore,
And vow'd a vow to Jacob's God, to keep for e—ver-more.
I will not come within my house, nor climb up to my bed,
Nor let my temples take their rest, nor the eyes in my head.

Till I have found out for the Lord
a place to sit thereon ;
an house for Jacob's God to be an habitation,
We heard of it at Ephrata,
there did we hear this sound ;
and in the fields and forests there
these voices first were found.
We will assay and go into his tabernacle there, fore his footstool to fall down,
and worship him in fear.

8 Arise, O Lord, arise, I pray,
into thy resting-place :
Thou & the ark of thy great strength
the presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness:
Let all thy saints and holy men
sing with great joyfulness.

10 And for thy servant David's sake,
refuse not, Lord, I pray,
The face of thine anointed, and turn not thy face away.

The second part.

11 The Lord to David swore in truth,
and will not shrink from it, Saying, the fruit of thy body
upon thy seat shall sit.

12 And if thy sons my cov'nant keep,
that I shall learn each one :
Then shall their sons for ever sit upon thy princely throne.

13 The Lord himself hath Sion chose,
and loves therein to dwell,

14 Saying, this is my resting-place,
I love and like it well.

15 And I will bless with great increase her victuals ev'ry where ;
And I will satisfie with bread
the needy that be there.

16 With my salvation I will her priests for evermore :
And all her saints likewise shall sing
and shout for joy therefore.

17 There will I surely make the house of David for to bud ;
For there I have ordain'd for mine
a lantern bright and good.

18 As for his foes, I will them cloath
with shame for evermore :
But I will cause his crown to shine
more fresh than heretofore.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore :
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

O enter not at all :

For justify'd be in thy sight
not one that liveth shall.

3 The enemy pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground hath thrown :
And laid me in the dark, like them
that dead are long ago.

4 Within me in perplexity
was mine afflicted spirit :
And in me was my troubled heart
amazed and affright.

5 Yet I record time past, and on thy works I meditate :

Yea, I do muse upon thy works
that thy hands have create.

6 To thee, O Lord, my God, do I stretch forth my craving hands :
My soul desireth after thee,
as do the thirsty lands.

7 Hear me with speed, my spirit fails, hide not thy face, lest I Be like to them that in the pit
sink down, and there do lie.

8 Let me thy loving kindness in the morning hear and know :
For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way where I shall go.

good Lord, grant we thee pray

That thou may'st be our Comforter
at the last dreadful day.

Of all strife and dissention,

O Lord, dissolve the bands ;

Make fast the knots of peace & love
throughout all Christian lands.

Grant us, O Lord, thro thee to know
the father most of might :

That of his dear beloved Son
we may attain the sight :

And that with perfect Faith also
we may acknowledge thee,

The Spirit of them both alway,
one God in Persons three.

All laud and praise to the Father,

And did from Egypt's bondage free : 1 Thou shalt adore no God but me.

Bassus.

The Ten Commandments.

A. 3. Voc.

GOD spake these words, I am the Lord who thee to liberty restor'd :

And did from Egypt's bondage free : 1 Thou shalt adore no God but me.

2 Thou shalt no graven Image make,
Nor any other likeness take,
In heav'n or earth, or seas below,
Tow^d thou may'st fall down & bow.

For jealous of mine honour, I Unto the fourth posterity
Visit the children for the sin
Which have by Fathers acted been.

Yet I my mercies heap in store
For thousand generations more
Of them that love me, whose intents
Walk after my commandements

3 Thou shalt by swearing not profane
Nor take thy Maker's Name in vain;
For God will no man guiltless deem,
Who doth his sacred Name blaspheme.

4 Remember that to rest and pray
Thou holy keep the Sabbath-day :
Six days thou labour shalt, but this
The Lord thy God's high Sabbath is :

No kind of work shall then be done
By thee, thy daughter, or thy Son ;

Nor servants, cattl^e, nor the late Admitted stranger to thy gate.

For God in six days all things made,
And resting on the seventh stay'd :
The Sabbath day he therefore blest,
Appointing it a Day of Rest.

5 Honour thy Parents and obey
What just commands soe'er they lay,
That in the land thou long maist live,
W^{ch} God doth for thy dwelling give.

6 From bloody Acts and Murder fly
7 Commit no foul Adultery.

8 Thou shalt not steal 9 Nor anywhere
False witness 'gainst thy Neibor bear.

(strife,
10 Thou shalt not, mov'd by lust or Covet thy Neighbour's house or wife,
Nor man, nor maid, nor ox of his,
Nor what to him belonging is.

The PRAYER.

THE Sp^rit of grace grant us, O L^d,
To keep these laws our hearts restore:
And cause us all with one accord
To magnifie thy Name therefore.

For

For of our selves no strength we have To keep these laws after thy will :
Thy might therefore, ô Christ, we crave
That we in thee may them fulfil.

(this,
Lord, for thy Name's sake grant us
Thou art our strength, ô Savior Christ:

Of thee to speed how should we miss,
In whom our treasure doth consist ?

To thee for evermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect,
And with the Holy Sp'rit always,
The comforter of thine Elect.

Cantus & Bassus. Humble Suit of a Sinner. Or to Windsor Tune.

O Lord, on whom I do depend, behold my careful heart:

And when thy will and pleasure is, release me of my smart.

Thou see'st my sorrows what they are, my grief is known to thee:

And there is none that can remove, or take the same from me;

Medius. An Hymn. A. 3. Voc.

And there is none that can remove, or take the same from me.

Bassus.

An Hymn.

A. 3. Voc.

O Lord, on whom I do depend, behold my careful heart :

And when thy will and pleasure is, release me of my smart.

Thou see'st my sorrows what they are, my grief is known to thee :

And there is none that can remove, or take the same from me ;

But only thou, whose aid I crave,
whose mercy still is prest
To ease all those that come to thee
for succour and for rest
And since thou see'st my restless eyes,
my tears and grievous groan ;
Attend unto my suit, O Lord,
mark my complaint and moan :

For sin hath so inclosed me,
and compass'd me about,
That I am now remediless,
if mercy help not out.
For mortal man cannot release,
or mitigate this pain :
But ev'n thy Christ, my Lord & God,
who for my sins was slain.

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
tho' not with mortal eye :
Yet do thy saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Tho' sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good
I shall enjoy the sight of him who shed for me his blood.

And as thine angels and thy saints
do now behold the same :
So trust I to possess that place,
with them that praise thy Name.
But whilst I live here in this vale
where sinners do frequent, Assist me ever with thy grace,
my sins still to lament :

Lest that I tread the sinners trace,
and give them my consent
To dwell with them in wickedness,
whereto nature is bent.
Only thy grace must be my stay,
let that with me remain :
For if I fall then of my self
I cannot rise again.

Wherefore this is yet once again
my suit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise,
And in thy Church & house of saints
sing Psalms to thee always.

Cantus & Bassus. Lamentation of a Sinner. Martyrs Tune.Medius.

An Hymn.

A. 3. Voc.Bassus.

An Hymn.

A. 3. Voc.

What gate thou open'st wide to those that do lament their sin :
Shut not that gate against me, Lord,
but let me enter in.

And call me not to strict account
how I have lived here :
For then I know right well, O Lord,
how vile I shall appear.

I need not to confess my life,
I am sure thou canst tell :

What I have been, and what I am,
I know thou know'st it well.

(be past,
O Lord, thou know'st what things
also the things that be :
Thou know'st also what is to come,
nothing is hid from thee.

(made Before the heav'ns and earth were thou know'st what things were then,
And all things else that have been among the sons of men. (since

And

And can the things that I have done
be hidden from thee then ?

No, no, thou know'st them all, O Lord,
where they were done, and when.

Wherefore with tears I come to thee
to beg and to intreat, Ev'n as the child that hath done ill,
and feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
where mercy doth abound,

Desiring mercy for my sin,
to heal my deadly wound.

O Lord, I need not to repeat
what I do beg or crave:
Thou know'st, O Lord, before I ask the things that I would have.

Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask,
this is the total sum :
For mercy, Lord, is all my suit,
Lord, let thy mercy come.

Cantus & Bassus. A Penitential Hymn. Or to 51 Ps. Tune.

O

Lord, in thee is all my trust, give ear unto my woful cry :

A. 3. Va.

ALL glo-ry be to God on high, and peace on earth likewise,

Good will to men e-ter-nal-ly, by Christ his sacrifice.

Bassus.

An Hymn.

A. 3. Va.

ALL glo-ry be to God on high, and peace on earth likewise,

Good will to men e-ter-nal-ly, by Christ his sacrifice.

O God the Father, heav'nly King,
we praise, we worship thee:
We glorifie thee, we give thanks,
Lord, for thy great glory.

O Lord, Lord God, O Jesu Christ,
the Father's only Son:
Only begot, the Wisdom true,
by whom all things were done.

O Lamb of God that tak'st away
the sins of all the world,

By guiltless death on cursed cross,
have mercy on us, Lord.

O thou that tak'st away the sins
and errors of the world,
By guiltless death on cursed cross,
have mercy on us, Lord.

O thou that tak'st away the sins
and errors of the world,
By guiltless death on cursed cross,
receive our Pray'rs, O Lord.

O thou

O thou that sit'st on God's right hand,
the Father eternal,
And dost our weakness understand,
have mercy on us all.

For thou only deserv'st the Name
of Israel's Holy One ;

Thou holy art, thou art the Lord,
thou even thou alone.

And thou only, O Jesu Christ,
thou with the Holy Ghost,
In glory of the Father, art highly advanced most.

Cantus & Bassus. An Hymn for Sunday. Or to St. David's Tune.

B

Behold we come, dear Lord, to thee, and bow before thy throne :

We come to offer on our knee our vows to thee alone.

Medius. An Hymn. A. 3. Voc.

Behold we come, dear Lord, to thee, and bow before thy throne :

We come to offer on our knee our vows to thee alone.

Bassus. An Hymn. A. 3. Voc.

Behold we come, dear Lord, to thee, and bow before thy throne :

We come to offer on our knee our vows to thee alone.

Whate'er we have, whate'er we are,
thy bounty freely gave:
Thou dost us here in mercy spare,
and wilt hereafter save.

But O ! can all our store afford
no better gifts for thee !
Thus we confess thy riches, Lord,
and thus our poverty.

'Tis

'Tis not our tongue or knee can pay
the mighty debt we owe:
For more we should than we can say,
far lower than we bow.

(pows,

Come then, my soul, bring all thy
and grieve thou hast no more:
Bring ev'ry day thy choicest hours,
and thy great G O D adore.

But above all, prepare thy heart
on this his own blest Day,
In its sweet task to bear thy part,
and Sing, and Love, and Pray.
Gloria Patri.

To God the Father, and the Son,
and Holy Ghost therefore;
Eternal Honour let be done
Henceforth for evermore.

Bassus.

An Hymn.

A. 3. Vo.

Now that the Day-star doth arise, beg we of God with humble cries,

All hurtful things to keep away, while we devoutly spend the day.

Our tongues to guide, so that no strife | To shut and close the wandering eye,
May breed disquiet in all our life: | Left it doth let in vanity.

To

To keep the heart most pure and free
From fond and troubled fantasie :
To tame proud flesh, while we deny't
A too full cup and wanton diet.

That when the day-light shall go out,
Time bringing on the night about,

We may, by leaving worldly ways,
Neglect no time our God to praise.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One blessed consubstantial Three :
All highest Praise, all humblest Thanks,
May now and still for ever be.

Cant. & Bass. On the Divine use of Musick. Or to 100 Ps. Tune.

Medius.

An Hymn.

A. 3. Voc.

And thou who gav'st us Voices, Lord, our grateful Songs in kindness bear.

Bassus.

An Hymn.

A. 3. Voc.

And thou who gav'st us Voices, Lord, our grateful Songs in kindness bear.

We'll joy in God, who is the Spring of lawfull Joy and harmless Mirth :
Whose boundless Love is fely call'd,
The Harmony of Heav'n and Earth.

These Praises, dearest Lord, aloud
our humblest Sonnets shall rehearse ;
Which rightly tun'd, are rightly fill'd,
The MUSICK of the Universe.

And

*And whilst we sing, we'll consecrate
that too too much prophaned Art,
By off'ring up with ev'ry Tongue
in ev'ry Song a flaming Heart.*

*We'll hallow Pleasure, and redeem
from vulgar use our precious Voice :
Those Lips which wantonly have sung,
shall serve our turn for nobler Joys.*

*Thus we will imitate on Earth
poor Mortals still the heav'nly Quires:*

*And with high Notes, above the Clouds
we'll send with words more rais'd do-(fret.*

*And that Above me may be sure,
when we come there our part to know:
Whilst we live here, at Home & Church
we'll practice Singing oft below.*

Gloria Patri.

*Glory and Praise be given most,
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost :
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah.*
